

Come and Play Day

Saturday 5 May 2018
Victoria Rooms
Queens Rd, BS8 1SA

CoMA Bristol is inviting musicians to take part in a day celebrating new music!

Under the baton of William Goodchild, you will join musicians from CoMA Bristol, the University of Bristol New Music Ensemble and singers of the Gurt Lush Choir led on the day by Sarah Burns, in a concert performance which includes a major new work by celebrated composer Nigel Osborne.

Whether you already love new music, or you're just curious to see what the fuss is about, here is a chance to take part in something amazing.

Details

- Saturday 5 May 2018
- Victoria Rooms, Bristol, BS8 1SA
- Directed by William Goodchild
- Rehearsals 10am-5pm, concert 6pm-8pm
- Open to players of any instrument
- Participation free!

Register your interest

Send an email to bristol@coma.org with your name and instrument. Participants must be 16+ at the time of the event and musicians should be a minimum level of grade 5.

Festival of Belgium England Germany Ireland Scotland Wales
CONTEMPORARY
MUSIC for all CELEBRATING NEW MUSIC

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

 University of BRISTOL

www.coma.org/festival
#comafest